

GALLERIA ALESSANDRA BONOMO

SOL LEWITT
MARISA MERZ

OPENING
MONDAY, 24 MAY 2010
6:30 – 9:30 p.m.

The Alessandra Bonomo Gallery will be inaugurating an exhibition dedicated to Sol LeWitt and Marisa Merz. Among other works, there is an unprecedented pencil wall drawing by Sol LeWitt that was planned during the Seventies, and a series of new works by Marisa Merz.

Sol LeWitt is internationally recognized as the most important figure in Conceptual Art and Minimalism. His research developed in a rigorous manner over the course of time, with articulated geometrical shapes – initially in pencil and later in colours. As the artist himself wrote when defining his wall drawings: “Each line is as important as each other line. All of the lines have become one thing. The viewer of the lines can only see lines on a wall. They are meaningless. That is art” (1971). A great retrospective is being held by the MASS MoCA in Massachusetts, where 105 wall drawings are being exhibited: the exhibition will last 25 years.

Marisa Merz has always been situated beyond constituted movements. Over the course of time, her work has travelled in many directions, and has exploited different material. By developing themes that are dear to her – complexity, the language existing between inner nature and appearances – her works mirror an image of strength that is out of the ordinary; they strike our attention with their capacity to truly be inside history. Marisa Merz is present, with an Artist Room dedicated to her, at the Tate Modern in London. The latest anthological review of her works was held in 2007, at the MADRE Museum in Naples.

The exhibition can be visited until the beginning of October.

We wish to recall that the Alessandra Bonomo Gallery is open from Tuesday to Saturday, from 2:30 until 7:30 p.m., or by appointment.
